George William Chisholm Brings Suit

Against Robert S. Hull And Two Other Defendants

A Suit For Divorce Filed By Jessie I. Clements

Other Items Of Interest From The Court House

George William Chisholm has commenced an action in the Knox county common pleas court against Robert S. Hull, The Sun Lumber Company, and Banner M. Allen, in which he claims that he is the owner of the real estate located at the south-east corner of Gambler and Gay streets, being the houses now owned and occupied by Robert S. Hull and Fred N. Cotton.

It is alleged that Sarah Hutchinson executed her will on July 22, 1882, and that her death occurred shortly afterwards. By the terms of the will the testatrix left all her real estate, which consisted of lot No. 42, old plot, city of Mt. Vernon, located at the corner of Gambler and Gay streets, to Alice V. Hutchinson, who later was Alice V. Kirk. The will further provided that if the said Alice V. Hutchinson died without children, then the above described real estate was to go to the testatrix's nephew, George B. Stahl, now George William Chisholm, of Cleveland, the plaintiff in this case. The petition further states that Alice V. Hutchinson or Alice V. Kirk, died in April, 1915, and that she left no children.

It is alleged by the plaintiff that on June 6, 1904, Alice V. Hutchinson delivered a deed for the property, described above, to Banner M. Allen, who was acting for Robert S. Hull. It is claimed that the consideration was only about one-third what the real estate was worth, it being estimated that the said property was easily worth $10,000 at the time of the transfer. The petition further alleges that on November 16, 1904, Banner M. Allen transferred the property to Robert S. Hull. The petition states that at a later date a portion was sold off the east part of the lot and a house constructed, this house now being the property of the Sun Lumber Company and occupied by Fred N. Cotton.

By the terms of the will of the late Sarah Hutchinson, the plaintiff in this action claims the ownership of the property and prays that he may be decreed the said real estate. The attorneys for the plaintiff are W. S. Kerr of Mansfield and J. B. Graham and William A. Hosack of Mt. Vernon.

for divorce in the common pleas court of Knox county against Ezekiah Clements. The plaintiff states that on February 19, 1912, she was married to the defendant. She charges the defendant with cruelty and gross neglect, and states that on June 21, he abandoned her and took all the household goods away with him. She asks for temporary alimony and upon final hearing asks for alimony and a divorce. William M. Koons represents the plaintiff.

ANNUAL Reunion Of St. Vincent de Paul's Alumni Association On Tuesday Evening Was A Very Pleasant Event

The twenty-first annual reunion of St. Vincent de Paul's Alumni association was held in the school auditorium on Tuesday evening and proved to be a most enjoyable event for the seventy-five members and guests present.

The auditorium was nicely decorated for the occasion with flags, streamers of blue and white the colors of the association, and black and gold, the colors of the class of 1915. Plants, ferns and a profusion of flowers, also added much to the delightful appearance of the hall. The tables were decorated with baskets of flowers and candles.

The reception of the members of the incoming class, the greeting of the sisters, and Rev. Father Mulhane, composed the first part of the evening. During the reception, punch was served.

At 8:30 the members were called to order by the president, Miss Sarah Condon of the class of 1911 and all were seated at small tables surrounding one large table at which were seated Rev. Father Mulhane, the sisters and the members of the class of 1915.

The Veni Creator was then sung by the entire assemblage, which was immediately followed by the calling of the roll and the reading of the minutes of the reunion of 1914 by Miss Grace Smith, '06, secretary.

During the past year two members of the association, Mrs. Elizabeth Sapp Whitford of Toledo and Miss Jane Hunt of this city have died and their memories were beautifully eulogized by Mrs. Clarence Sapp, '03, the necrologist of the association. The program then followed:

Address of Welcome—Miss Sarah Condon, President, '11.
Response—Mr. Paul Andreas, '15.
Piano Duet—Miss Elizabeth Lee, '04, and Mrs. Joseph Ferguson, '08.
Toast, "Not for School But for Life"—Mr. Glen Drouhard, '13.
Vocal Solo—Mr. Fred J. Lawler, '09, Miss Elizabeth Lee, '04, Accompanist.
Toast, "Old School Books"—Miss Margaret Kelly, '13.
Violin and Piano Duet—Mr. Paul McKee, '15, and Miss Marie Harrington, '15.
Toast, "Looking Backward"—Mr. Henry Carr, '04.

The entire program showed careful preparation by the participants and caused much applause upon the part of the members, those giving the musical numbers being compelled to respond to encores.

Rev. Father Mulhane, who had acted as toastmaster during the evening, then expressed his appreciation of the program and spoke of the satisfaction derived from the meeting of the association.

The banquet was then served by Caterer Bradford.

PISTOL

Selling To Minors Must Cease Says Juvenile Officer

Juvenile Officer Purcell has been busy for the past few days trying to break up the practice of the use of toy pistols by young boys. He has been called to various sections of the city where the neighborhood has been annoyed by the snapping of the caps in the pistols.

Mr. Purcell calls the attention of Mt. Vernon merchants that it is unlawful to sell any kind of these toy pistols to a child under age and that there is a fine of $50 and costs and 20 days in jail for a violation of the law. It is also illegal for a person of age to purchase a pistol and furnish it to a person under age.

OBITUARY
Orwell Conkling, son of Thomas and Hannah Conkling, was born May 8, 1880, departed this life June 16, 1915, aged 35 years, 1 month, 8 days. He was united in marriage to Luta Delverda Hatton on Nov. 12, 1902. To this union were born five children, two sons and three daughters. One daughter died in infancy.
He united with A. C. church at Mt. Liberty in the year 1904 and remained a faithful Christian until death.
He leaves a wife, four children, a father, mother, three sisters and two brothers, besides a host of other relatives and friends to mourn their loss.
Orwell was a kind and loving husband, father, son and brother. Although a sufferer for over four years, he bore his suffering with great patience, trusting his Saviour, and having a kind word for everyone.
A precious one from us is gone, A voice we loved is still.
A place is vacant in our home, Which never can be filled.
God in his wisdom has recalled The boon his love has given.
And though his body slumbers here, We hope to meet in heaven.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to extend our sincere thanks to our friends, relatives and neighbors who were so kind and good to us and to our beloved husband, father, son and brother during his long illness and death.
Mrs. Lulu Conkling and Children, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Conkling and Children.
